

Trail Monitoring Field Form

This field monitoring form is part of the Adaptive Management Plan for your trail area. Choose monitoring sites based on the results of your environmental screening tool and local knowledge of the area. Monitoring sites should be where environmental impacts are most likely to occur over time. Adaptive management means that you will monitor sites for negative impacts and correct things when these impacts become unacceptable.

Trail System Name

Evaluator:

Site Name:

GPS Coordinates (UTM)

Easting:

Northing:

Check Sites Monitored

Date of Evaluation:

Site Measurements

Site	Concern / Indicator / Measureable	Measurement (include units)	Comments
------	-----------------------------------	-----------------------------	----------

Photo Documentation

Photo #	Location	View Content - Issues of Concern	Comments
---------	----------	----------------------------------	----------

Invasive Plant Species List

Site	Location	Common name	Comments
------	----------	-------------	----------

Notes: